The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday August 18. to Saturday August 20. 1709.

Whitehall, August 17.

WHereas ſeveral Pariſhes in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and Bills of Mortality, have received ſeveral Families of the Palatines, at Five Pound per Head; and other Pariſhes ſignified their willingneſs to receive others of them upon the ſame Terms: By Order of the Right Honourable the Lords and others, her Majeſty's Commiſſioners for receiving and diſpoſing of the Mony to be collected for the Subſiſtance and Settlement of the ſaid Palatines, Notice is hereby given, That any Pariſhes that are willing to receive one or more Families of the ſaid Palatines, ſhall be allowed Five Pound per Head for every Perſon in ſuch Family, beſides the Charges of conveying them to ſuch Pariſh.

And whereas ſeveral private Perſons in and about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and in other Parts, have received and provided for ſeveral Families of the ſaid Palatines; Notice is hereby likewiſe given, That any Perſons who are willing to receive and provide for one or more Families of the ſaid Palatines, ſhall have the ſame Allowance of Five Pound per Head for every Perſon in ſuch Family, together with the Charges of conveying them to the Place where they are to be ſo received: And that any ſuch Pariſhes or Perſons may apply themſelves, by Letter or otherwiſe, to the ſaid Commiſſioners, at their Committee, which meets every Day at the Council-Chamber in Guildhall, London.

H. Bendyſh.

The following Addreſs from the Commons of Ireland has been Tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant of that Kingdom, and preſented by Mr. Secretary Boyle to her Majeſty, who received it very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament Aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOur Majeſty's loyal and faithful Commons, with great Delight and Satisfaction, return their unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty for your moſt gracious Anſwer to their humble Addreſs, in which they beſeech your Majeſty, that the Outlawries of Perſons guilty of the Rebellions in One thouſand ſix hundred forty one, and One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight, which are of Force, may ſo remain.

They no longer apprehend that any Sollicitations can be ſucceſsful to obtain the Reverſal of ſuch Outlawries, when they conſider the Protection they have hitherto enjoyed under your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Government; and have your Royal Promiſe that your Majeſty will always have a great regard to the Titles and Intereſts of your Proteſtant Subjects, and particularly to ſuch as depend upon the Forfeitures and Outlawries of Perſons guilty of the Rebellions in One thouſand ſix hundred forty one, and One thouſand ſix hundred eighty eight.

And are happy in this Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that as they have from the beginning of this Parliament acted with the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude towards the beſt of Queens, they will by their future Behaviour endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of your Majeſty's Favour and good Opinion of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

Lisbon, Aug. 6. N. S. His Excellency the Earl of Galway has been very dangerouſly ill of the Gout, but is now recovered. The Turkey Fleet, and the Trade from hence, ſailed yeſterday Morning under Convoy of eight Men of War for Great Britain.

Coningsbergen, Auguſt 13. N. S. Three Expreſſes are arrived here ſince Friday laſt from the Czar's Army, they all agree that the Army of the King of Sweden is entirely defeated. The Muſcovites had taken from the Swedes fifty ſeven pieces of Cannon, ſeventeen Mortars one hundred and twelve Colours and Standards, and above three thouſand Wagons laden with Baggage, warlike Stores and Proviſions; they took alſo above a Million of Ducats of the Pay of the Swediſh Army. The Czar was marched with the greater part of his Troops towards Livonia, and had detached twenty five thouſand Men toward the Weyſſell, to reinforce the Confederate Army in Poland. Six thouſand Ruſſian Horſe were marching with a great number of Swediſh Priſoners towards Moſcow. It is ſaid, that of the whole Swediſh Army no above ſix thouſand had made their Eſcape.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 21. N. S. Baron Heems, Envoy-Extraordinary from his Imperial Majeſty to the States-General, is preparing to ſet out from the Army towards Vienna. Count Bergeick returned to Mons from Verſailles on the 18th Inſtant; but we hear that he hath obtained but very inconſiderable Sums of Mony from the French Court, in reſpect of what is due for the Service of the Walloon Troops. The late Elector of Bavaria hath diſpoſed all things for his Departure from Mons, if the Allies make a Movement that way after the taking of the Cittadel of Tournay.

From the Camp at Orchies, Auguſt 22. N. S. On Tueſday the twentieth Inſtant the Duke of Marlborough and the Prince of Savoy began the Review of the Troops, with that of the firſt Line of the Army under his Grace's Command; Yeſterday they reviewed in like manner the ſecond Line; and this Day both Lines of the Prince of Savoy's Army: Their Highneſſes had the Satisfaction to find all the Troops compleat, and in very good Order. We have an Account from Tournay, that a new Battery of fifteen Mortars began to fire Yeſterday from General Schulenbourg's Attack; our Miners having had the good Fortune the day before to diſcover the Enemies Mine under the ſaid Battery, out of which they took eighteen Barrels of Powder, the Enemy having deferred ſpringing that Mine 'till ſuch time as our Battery ſhould begin to fire. The Beſieged ſprung another of their Mines the ſame Afternoon, by which we loſt a Captain and a Lieutenant of Lieutenant General Ingoldesby's Regiment, and had near thirty private Soldiers killed and wounded. We have ſince repaired the Damage done to our Works by the Enemies Mines and Bombs, and finiſhed laſt Night a ſecond Parallel at General Schulenbourg's Attack.

From the Camp at Orchies, Auguſt 26. N. S. This Day arrived here from Muſcovy Monſieur de Sudendunck, Major of Prince Menzikow's Regiment, with Letters of the ninth of July, O. S. from the Prince to the Duke of Marlborough, giving an Account of the Victory obtained by the Czar over the Swediſh Army the 27th of June, and of the Troops that ſurrendred themſelves Priſoners at Diſcretion on the 30th following, to the number of more than ſixteen thouſand Men. Theſe Letters mention, that the King of Sweden retired with great Difficulty, and a very ſmall Retinue, over the Boriſthenes, having received a Wound by a ſmall Shot in his Heel. By the Account we have from Tournay, ſeveral Mines the Beſieged have ſprung for three Days paſt have done us very little Damage. Our Sap is carried on ſo far, that in two or three days we may be ready to ſpring our Mines under the Counterſcarp, in order to make a Lodgment there. The Enemy continue in their former Camp, from whence great numbers of Deſerters came daily over to us.

Dover